Those who plan to attend the Stockholm meeting are encouraged to make hotel and travel reservations as early as possible, because of the International Congress of Psychology meetings to be held July 23-28. If you register for the Congress (<http://www.icp2000.se/>), they will help with discounted hotel bookings. Consult their web page for a list of hotels and prices. The current SEK exchange rate is 8.35 to the dollar. Registration for the Congress is about $390 US until the end of February, when it goes up again.

If you are not registering for the Congress and/or plan to make your own reservations for the SSSR meeting, here are some hotel web pages and email addresses:
